REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS.

The 57th Annual Report of the Parent Board shows progress in our work in the six foreign fields. The native membership is 12,906. The Parent Board has 96 missionaries, the Woman's Board 66. Besides there are of native preachers and other workers 246. It is gratifying to the church at home to know that this has been one of the very best years in the history of the China Mission, the net increase being the largest ever recorded. The people of the rural districts are eager to hear the gospel. The reports coming from Japan, Korea, Mexico, Brazil and Cuba are very encouraging. The great anxiety of the people to hear of the Christ who saves calls the church to a more thorough consecration of life and means to the work of missions. The increase in the collections the past year have been $22,000. We trust that in a short time, instead of eleven, all the conferences will be paying the assessments in full. The Kentucky Conference is steadily growing in missionary zeal and liberality. We expect to be among the leading conferences in this great cause.

In our home field we find marks of progress. New churches are being built, and the collections are in advance of last year. We recommend that each Presiding Elder hold in his district during the 1st Quarter a Missionary Institute.

We thank God for the safe arrival of our Bro. W. G. Cram and wife, in the Korean mission field, and rejoice in the good reports we hear from their work. While we regret to lose the faithful service of Bro. C. H. Greer from our conference, we are grateful that God has opened for him a field of usefulness in our Cuban work. Our prayer follow him.

We are glad to have with us Dr. Seth Ward, one of the Secretaries of the Parent Board. We pledge our support in the circulation of our missionary literature, especially the "Go Forward."

We shall co-operate with our women in their Foreign and Home Societies.

We urge every pastor to take the collection before Christmas, to hold mass meetings and to preach frequently on the subject of missions.

We recommend the appointment of Rev. E. C. Savage as Conference Missionary Secretary.

Woman's Home Mission Society of Kentucky Conference, for Conference Year 1902-03.

The year 1902-1903 has been the most eventful in the history of the Home Mission Society. New work has been projected, and plans enlarged for work already in existence. One of the events to make this a memorable year, was the consecration of the first deaconesses at the Board Meeting last April. The office was created by the action of the General Conference in 1901. The increased demand for general information about the work, is a promise of growth, since if the work is understood, it will commend itself to all who seek to better mankind.

Kentucky Conference Society has had some growth this year in number of societies, and a growing interest in the different departments of the work.

Reports for the year, present the following:

Number of Adult Societies.....	45
Number of Juvenile Societies.....	10

JOINT BOARD OF FINANCE.

REPORT NO. 1.

The communication from the Board of Trustees of the M. E. Church, South, with reference to the endowment for the superannuated preachers, and widows and orphans of preachers, has been before us and we have had a conference with Dr. A. F. Watkins, their Agent. We most heartily approve of this movement to relieve the veterans of our ministry, and think no claim upon our beneficence more sacred and obligatory. The success of the Agent has been almost phenomenal in the Conferences he has visited, and we feel quite sure that it will be no less kindly and enthusiastically received in Kentucky than elsewhere. We request that the Bishop will accord him an opportunity to present it to the Conference, and that the brethren will appoint an hour when he may have a large hearing before the best congregations of ministry and laymen.

We offer the following resolutions:

Resolved, That we will promote, by every legitimate means, this cause so dear to the ministry of our church, and that at the annual sessions of our Conference it shall be presented to the congregation.

Resolved, That each minister shall present this movement to each one of his congregations and take up a special collection for this object.

REPORT OF BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Your Board is rejoiced to be able to report a very successful year in our educational work. The College has never been in a more prosperous condition than at the present time. We had a larger enrollment last year than in any previous year, and the character of the work done was eminently satisfactory.

A large number of students found a comfortable home in Clark Hall, under the most favorable conditions for moral and spiritual growth. The religious welfare of the students is carefully looked after. The College Y. M. C. A. is one of the most active of any in the State, and is exerting a fine influence on the student body. The pastor of the church has sought to be the pastor of the College students also, and has been greatly rejoiced in having the hearty co-operation of so many of them in the Sunday School, Epworth League, and Prayer-meeting, and in all departments of church work.

A friend of the college has offered as much as $2,500 to the College endowment, provided $10,000 can be raised from other sources. We would call the attention of the people to this all-important interest so vital to our success, and would urge that a strong effort be made between now and Jan. 1st, to increase the endowment funds of the college. We request that the pastors open their pulpits to the representatives of the college, and assist them to bring this important matter to their people. The College must be endowed, and now is the time for a forward movement.

It is very gratifying to know that there has been a marked increase as indicated by reports at this conference session in the amount raised on the assessment for education.

The work of our Academy at Campton continues to prosper. On the 20th Century account we still have due in unpaid subscriptions $2,500. Out of the $18,500 pledged, $16,000 have been received.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

The Board of Education request the appointment of Rev. J. W. Hughes to the presidency of Asbury College, Rev. C. C. Fisher to the presidency of Millersburg Female College, Rev. W. S. Anderson, Professor in Kentucky Wesley College.

Our Vanderbilt University at Nashville, deserves the liberal support of all our people, and we would urge that young men preparing for the ministry avail themselves of the opportunities afforded by this institution. The Payne and Lane Institutes are eminently worthy of our support, and are in need of the help our people should give them. We recommend the assessment upon our conference of $339 for Payne and Lane, and $3,339 for Education.

We note, with pleasure, the progress of our Correspondence School. 250 students have already been enrolled, seven from this conference. Our Boards of Examination have accepted certificates from this school in lieu of the examination at conference, and we would urge our young preachers to take this course, as the work is so much more thorough than it can possibly be according to the old method.

Our Educational Statistics are: Value of property, $80,000; endowment, $45,000; Professors, 13, pupils, 319.

W. F. TAYLOR, President.

J. R. SAVAGE, Secretary.

REPORT OF SUNDAY-SCHOOL BOARD.

We hail with gratitude to God, the tidings of success which has attended the efforts of the Sunday Schools of our beloved Zion, as given in the reports of Dr. James Atkins, through whose efficient labors as Sunday School editor, much of the net gain in all departments of the work has been attained.

The Sunday School Board of this Conference has furnished literature to all the schools that made application during the past year. Our own literature and that only is recommended for use in all our schools. We desire to call special attention to the Sunday School Magazine and the Children's Visitor. These periodicals are of inestimable value and every school should have an ample supply of them.

We urge the parents, teachers, and superintendents to see that the children, as far as practicable, attend the Sunday morning preaching services.

We most heartily endorse the Bible Teacher's Study Circle, and recommend that "Study Circles" be organized in every school. Home Departments should be organized wherever needed. We offer the following resolutions:

Resolved 1. That the pastors and superintendents see that Children's Day be observed and collections taken in all our schools as provided by the Discipline.

Resolved 2. That it is the sense of their body that an evening be devoted at our Annual Conference sessions for a Sunday School anniversary, at which time some one shall deliver an address on the Sunday School and its needs.

REPORT OF EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD.

The Epworth League Board desires to report an increase in the number of League chapters in the Conference. The greatest increase has been in the Maysville District, where we have several new chapters. This increase is largely due to the untiring efforts of the Presiding Elder, who has constantly kept this matter before his people. We wish to note the fact, however, that nearly half of the Leagues in the Conference are in the Covington District.

Our Conference at Millersburg was very well attended by the laity, but only a few of the preachers were in attendance. Indeed our work has been somewhat hindered heretofore by at least the seeming indifference of many of the preachers. This indifference is indicated by the fact that only a very few of the preachers will attend our conference meetings, and previous to this session of the conference only nineteen out of one hundred and thirty preachers have been regular subscribers to The Epworth Era.

We offer the following resolutions for your consideration:

Whereas, we desire to more effectually promote the interests of the Epworth League work in the Kentucky Annual Conference, therefore, be it Resolved, First. That our Epworth League Board be requested to arrange for a League Conference this year, and further that we will do all we can to make that meeting a success.

Resolved, Secondly. That we will all try to take the Epworth Era, and that we will urge our people to subscribe for it.

Respectfully submitted,

U. V. W. DARLINGTON, Ch'm'n.

H. R. MILLS, Secretary.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

Your committee on District Conference Records submit the following report:

We had the records of four districts before us; viz.; Lexington, Covington, Shelbyville, and Maysville. These records have all been neatly kept. We make mention of the following errors: Lexington District record, for V. B. Daughetee, L. E. They should read V. B. Daughetee, Superannuate. Covington District record reads, Rev. Buffington, Superannuated. They should read, Rev. Buffington, Supernumerary. Rev. P. H. Hoffman, Supernumerary, should read Rev. P. H. Hoffman, Superannuated. Shelbyville District Conference records mention Quarterly Conference records present without naming the charges they are from. Danville District Records were not before us owing to the fact that they were misplaced, and the last Secretary could not find them in time to record his minutes. London District Conference Records were not present for our inspection. We pass our strongest criticism upon the person whose duty it was to present them to the committee.

Respectfully submitted,

R. M. LEE, Chairman.

T. W. HARDY, Secretary.

BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

Your Committee on Books and Periodicals beg leave to submit the following report:

We feel that all of our Publishing House literature is worthy of our cordial appreciation and support, but we would make special mention of The Christian Advocate, The Methodist Quarterly Review, The Epworth Era, the Sunday School Magazine and the Children's Visitor. We believe these compare favorably with the like periodicals in other churches, if, indeed, they do not surpass them. We regret that the Review and the Era have not been self-sustaining, and may well charge ourselves in part with the failure. We rejoice that the Advocate is maintaining its place among the high-grade publications of the religious world, and it is a reproach to our Conference that its circulation among our people is so limited. We do not favor any reduction in the price. It is well worth what it costs. We take pleasure, also, in commending the conservative spirit and good editorial taste of our Conference Organ, The Central Methodist, and having been assured by its editor and manager of their fidelity to the Church and her institutions, we recommend the continuance of its official relation to the Conference.

U. G. FOOTE, Chairman.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON ORPHANS' HOME.

The Orphans' Home Committee respectfully submit the following report:

From the President's Annual Report, we learn that there is a net increase of fourteen children in our Home this year. We now have forty-four children in the Home—nineteen girls and twenty-five boys. They have placed in homes during the year four girls and four boys.

The report shows that the health of the children is good, and that thirty-eight of the forty-four will start to the city school September 8, 1903. It is gratifying to know that the children stand well in their studies and deportment, both in the city school and in the Sunday School.

The President's Report shows the assets of the Home to be $75,551.97, and liabilities nothing.

The Agent's Report shows that 130 boxes of good things were donated to the Home during the year, and that $2,574.05 has been given the Home from the Kentucky Conference this year. We regret that the attempt made in the past year to raise $100,000 as an endowment fund met with such poor encouragement, but our prayer is that it may yet be secured.

We recommend that the fifth Sundays be observed as Orphans' Home Day, and that the collections taken on that day be sent to the Agent; that there be opened a column in Financial Table No. 2 of our Conference Minutes, as Orphans' Home column, and that the President and Agent be required to make an itemized report to the Orphans' Home Committee of their receipts and disbursements during the year.

We recommend that the Conference ratify the re-appointment of Bro. E. S. Boswell as Agent, and Mrs. Florence M. Picard as Matron of the Home.

J. R. NELSON, Chairman.

W. S. MAXWELL, Sec'y.

REPORT OF BIBLE SOCIETY BOARD.

Among the benevolences, none have a more significant place than that of the Bible Cause. It may look to be a small thing among the assessments, but it outweighs them all in importance in that the Word of God blazes the way for Christian work in all lands, and afterwards enters into the warp and woof of the social, political, educational and religious life of every nation blessed with its circulation. The American Bible Society should have our first consideration in its noble and far-reaching work. We cannot be too much in earnest in disseminating the Word of God throughout the world.

Cheering news comes to us that the annual output of the Bible and portions of it, is constantly increasing, but sorry to state that the income of the Society has fallen off more than $73,000 in gifts and bequests. However, the churches have done well.

The demand for the Word of God, created by pressing calls from benighted and down-trodden lands is more than the supply; therefore, we, your committee, beg leave to offer the following resolutions:

Resolved, That $1,000 be assessed on the Kentucky Conference for the Bible cause, which is the same as last year.

Resolved, That the pastors take the annual offering for this cause as early in the year as possible.

Resolved, That your committee arrange for an anniversary at our next Conference, and secure an able man for the address on that occasion; and,

Whereas, the British and Foreign Society celebrates its centenary year on March 7, 1904, and that all Protestant churches will be requested to hold services on that day looking to the circulation of the Word of God, therefore,

Resolved, That we join in the celebration of that great event, and that a collection be taken on that day to supply Bible destitution in the Kentucky Conference, especially in our mountain district.

T. W. BARKER, Chairman.

C. A. BROMLEY, Secretary.

REPORT ON SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

Recognizing the Sabbath as the Lord's Day, which we are commanded to "keep holy"; and knowing that disobedience to this command is a serious violation of the Divine law, which, if persisted in, will result in physical, mental, moral and spiritual degeneracy, both to the individual and society; and that the Sabbath, instituted for man, when properly observed is a conservator of the Christian religion, of morality, of human life, and a means of spiritual development and usefulness, because it is a hallowed day, blessed of God for these purposes; and observing with sadness the extent to which it is now being desecrated by Sunday trains and traveling, by the commercial world, by the circulation and reading of Sunday papers, by engaging in the worldly pleasures of the times, such as ball playing, theater going, and such like; and the failure to regard the Sabbath on the part of many otherwise good people as a day to be kept holy unto the Lord, therefore be it

RESOLVED, First, That we urge our people to use the greatest diligence to properly observe the Sabbath and to protect it from all forms of desecration;

Second, That the pastors, as the watchmen of Zion, carefully instruct the people as to their duties and privileges on the Lord's Day, warning them against the encroaching evil of the times.

Third, That we commend most highly the work of the Sunday League of America, an incorporated society, whose object is to preserve the American Sunday of rest and thoughtfulness in the United States, and to introduce it into all American lands," and request the Secretary of the Conference to send a copy of these resolutions to the Secretary of this organization at Columbus, Ohio.

Very respectfully,

H. G. TURNER, Ch'm'n.

B. E. LANCASTER, Sec.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE

Whenever any evil lays its hand upon man's moral and spiritual nature that moment the Church of God should lay its hand upon that evil. Believing the use of intoxicating liquors as a beverage to be antagonistic to all that we hold morally and spiritually precious; that the drink curse in the hands of the foes of Christianity is a mighty weapon against the work of the Church from our own land to the furthestmost field of missionary labor; and the liquor traffic to be a public plunderer that has no mercy on its victims, that tramples down the Sabbath and dishonors God, therefore be it

RESOLVED, First, That we realize the need of a revival of gospel power in our temperance work, to save those who are helplessly, hopelessly struggling in the furnace-blasts of intemperance, and make the church a tremendous power in the overthrow of this great sin of our civilization.

Resolved, Second, That a traffic so notoriously wicked that members of the Church cannot engage in it and retain membership in the Church, is too bad to be legalized by the votes of Christian men; and if "the height of political wisdom is to follow God," it is the duty of every Christian, insofar as God gives him to see the light, by influence, voice and vote, to help place in positions of public trust men who are out of harmony with saloon politics, and in harmony with the purpose to destroy the sovereignty of the saloon wherever it exists.

Resolved, Third, There is a lesson for this republic in the answer of the Chinese Emperor, who, when solicited to tax opium for revenue, replied: "I will never consent to raise the revenue of my country upon the vices of my people," and will endeavor so to inform and inspire the whole Church, as to secure a memorial to Congress to abolish the revenue features of the liquor traffic, thereby leaving the saloon system to stand upon its own merit, which would surely hasten the overthrow of the rum power.

Resolved, Fourth. We recognize the efficiency of the State Local Option Committee and our Field Secretary, Rev. G. W. Young, in the prosecution of the purpose herein declared. We recommend the following names as members of the State Local Option Committee: John

R. Deering, T. W. Watts, L. E. Mann, B. J. Durham, R. T. Marshall, and T. J. Jenkins.

MEMOIRS.

Rev. Joseph Rand.

Rev. Joseph Rand was of Wesleyan parentage. His people resided in Durham, England, where he was born November 10, 1823. The death of his mother and his father's business misfortune threw the boy upon his own resources when but nine years old; and in the struggle that ensued he had to look after the support of three younger children and to become guardian also for them. God was with Joseph, whilst Joseph was true to his brethren.

His apprenticeship passed without separating him from Sunday-school or church, but not until he had received license as a local preacher in the Bishop Auckland circuit of Durham, his native county. This honor was given in 1842, when the lad was in his nineteenth year. From that day until March 31, 1903, a period of sixty-one years, he studied to show himself approved unto God, a workman that needed not to be ashamed.

The young preacher married Miss Bessie Raine in 1843, and came the following year to New York, where he found home and work the first day after his landing. He began business for himself in 1847, in Covington, Ky.; but in the fall of the next year he knocked at the door of the Kentucky Conference of the M. E. Church, South, in session at Flemingsburg, Bishop Capers being in the chair. There were admitted along with him Samuel P. Cummins, Jonathan K. Hedges, Paul H. Hoffman, Robert Hiner, Samuel L. Adams, Benj. F. Gatch, Franklin W. Phillips, Joseph H. Wright, Monroe T. Brooks, William H. Fleece, John Peace and Michael Lancaster. Of these thirteen, but three are now living, viz.: Hedges, Hiner and Hoffman—all on the retired list. He was then almost twenty-five years old. Had he lived to see this session, he would have heard his name called and the usual official response for him made for the fifty-fifth time: "Nothing against him." The active itinerant service of Brother Rand covered just forty-eight years, and he was indeed "effective" throughout the whole period. In 1896 he was granted the "superannuate relation," in which he continued to his death, his name remaining the third one on the Conference roll. His purpose in going upon the retired list was to devote himself more fully to the care of the invalid wife, whose painful condition required constant nursing, and whose lovely, life-long tenderness toward him entitled her to the gentlest and most unremitting service. After more than three years of suffering and suspense, the silver cord was loosed, and the husband-lover left to finish alone his pilgrimage. No, not alone, but lonely, "sighing for the touch of a vanished hand and the sound of a voice that is still." Conspicuous among our brother's good traits was his self-denying regard for those of his own house.

Rev. Joseph Rand.

In 1896 he was granted the "superannuate relation," in which he continued to his death, his name remaining the third one on the Conference roll. His purpose in going upon the retired list was to devote himself more fully to the care of the invalid wife, whose painful condition required constant nursing, and whose lovely, life-long tenderness toward him entitled her to the gentlest and most unremitting service. After more than three years of suffering and suspense, the silver cord was loosed, and the husband-lover left to finish alone his pilgrimage. No, not alone, but lonely, "sighing for the touch of a vanished hand and the sound of a voice that is still." Conspicuous among our brother's good traits was his self-denying regard for those of his own house.

Rev. Joseph Rand.

Mention may scarcely be made of all the churches under Brother Rand's pastoral care. There come to mind the circuits, Williamstown, Walton, Shelby, and the stations, Carrollton, Maysville, Frankfort, Winchester, Shelbyville, Lexington, Mt. Sterling, Versailles and others no less faithfully served. Then the districts over which he presided in turn during his riper years for seventeen successive terms—Covington three years, Danville six and Lexington eight; and that with rare fidelity and no mean ability or lack of acceptability. In the most remarkable General Conference held since 1846, the radical one at New Orleans in 1866, he had membership and influence. Such are the facts, the bare outlines of that body of church work which made up the ministerial life of our beloved brother.

In the mention of character, experience, and personal qualities, I must, of course, study brevity. Brother Rand had a large, strong frame, fine health, excellent spirits, and good mental power. He might have been a success in business. He thought rapidly and clearly, was well informed and fluent. For correct judgment he was much respected. His decisions from the chair were never reversed. The knowledge of church law that he possessed was extensive and ever ready for use. He had fine power of observation, and saw things with an eye to their value and utility. Fond of young people, he was never inattentive to the aged. His disposition was cheerful, and he looked upon the bright side and showed it to his hearers. He was an off-hand speaker, "full of ancient saws and modern instances." He knew men rather than books. His reading was more thoughtful than general.

As a preacher he improved with age. His sermons were of the kind called practical, and in tone always encouraging. He loved our hymns, and his gift of song will be long spoken of. In prayer he was appropriate, comprehensive, and sympathetic.

For the pastoral office he had both taste and fitness. His sheep knew his voice in trouble and danger. He could deal faithfully even with friends in fault—a rare ability and a gracious one. In every fiber he was a churchman. Knowing the doctrine, honoring the usage, employing the ritual, administering the law, and glorying in the history of Methodism, he gave himself to her service. He had the Englishman's sense of fairness, and his firmness also; yet he was intensely American and invincibly Wesleyan. His work was done regardless of roads or clouds, smiles or frowns.

In giving his religious testimony, in the domestic circle, the classroom, or great congregations, he was always brief, modest, calm, but clear and very confident. The sum of it, as I recollect, was that God had been unspeakably good—His gracious sufficiency had been richly realized—His divine presence was constant and very comforting—God was his refuge, solace, a very present help in trouble. The chamber where this good man met his fate was privileged above the common walks of life, quite on the verge of heaven. He was ready, ripe, meet to be partaker of the inheritance of the saints in light. He had an abundant entrance. He is in the Land o' the Leal.

JOHN R. DEERING.

Mrs. Antoinette Speer.

At Murfreesboro, Tenn., on the 14th of April, Mrs. Antoinette Catherine Bliss, widow of the Rev. Samuel W. Speer, D.D., of the Kentucky Conference, exchanged the earthly for the heavenly life.

Granddaughter of Ensign Abel Bliss, of Revolutionary fame, she was born in the beautiful town of Wilbraham, Mass., February 6, 1818. Through her father, John Bliss, and her mother, Harriet Brewer Merrick, she inherited something of the strength and character of three notable New England families.

Her native town being the seat of Wesleyan Academy, the oldest of American Methodist schools, her educational advantages were better than were common at that time.

During a visit to her aunt, Mrs. S. B. Thomas, of Louisiana, she met the Rev. Samuel W. Speer, then of Natchez, Miss., and soon afterward was united with him in marriage. To his motherless daughter she at once became a true mother, and, as the four other children later born to her—John Bliss, Charley Ewing, Harriet, and Samuel Marshall—were early called away, the bond between her and the daughter given her of God, though not by birth, became even more precious and beautiful. After the death of the husband and father, mother and daughter seemed to live in and for each other, yet each in and for the Master, who had given them each to each.

Though Mrs. Speer had outlived the generation to which she belonged, many, both in the North and in the South, will cherish her memory. They have received inspiration and help from her sterling character. They have been impressed by the rare combination of virtues and graces that was found in her. Her simplicity and genliness coupled with rare intelligence and sympathy, have made upon many a profound impression. Her piety was of the kind that attracts others to pious living. She was gentle, yet strong; wise, yet thoroughly teachable; reserved, yet known and read of all.

On Saturday, the 18th of April, under a sunny sky and amid the prayers she knew so well, her casket was deposited beneath the green turf beside those of her beloved husband and children in the lovely Dell cemetery of her native town. Earth's peace, as well as heaven's was hers.

W. F. WARREN.

Mrs. T. J. Godbey.

Catherine Jones Godbey, wife of the Rev. T. J. Godbey, was the daughter of A. F. and Susan Jones. She was born in Casey county, Ky., February 8, 1832. She was brought up under religious influences, and joined the church, making a profession of religion in her young girlhood. On October 25, 1854, she was married to T. J. Godbey, who was just then entering the Kentucky Conference, and from that time up to her death shared with him the joys and sorrows of the Methodist itinerancy.

Her piety, though not demonstrative, was uniform and consistent. Being a frequent sufferer from ill-health and having the care of a family, which was much afflicted, she was prevented from being as active in Christian work as she desired, but the last few years of her life she took great interest in missionary work, being president of the society in New Castle at the time of her death, which occurred at the parsonage in New Castle, Ky., February 15, at 4 o'clock in the morning. She had been suffering with asthma for about three weeks, but as she had been subject to the disease for many years, her family were hopeful of her recovery. The day before her death, however, her condition became more alarming, and she gradually grew worse until the end came, but she passed away as gently as falling asleep. While there was no parting word to cheer the friends left behind, yet they sorrow not as those who have no hope. She was the last member of her father's family, and most of her own children had preceded her in death. A husband, two daughters and a wide circle of friends stand in the shadow of this great grief with bowed heads, trying to say: "Not as I will, but as Thou wilt." Among those who labor for the Lord, next to His called and commissioned ministers are their wives, who share their toils and sacrifices. Much is due this good woman for the very efficient service which her husband has always rendered the church. "God is not unrighteous to forget her work and labor of love." Her reward is sure.

W. T. ROWLAND.

Mrs. Grace Wills Jackson.

Grace Wills Jackson, wife of Rev. George B. Jackson, and daughter of Ben. T. and Elizabeth Wills, was born near Decatur, Wise county, Texas, November 25, 1879, and died at her father's home, near Ruckerville, Clark county, Ky., May 31, 1903.

When three years of age her parents moved to Kentucky and located in the same neighborhood in which her father still lives. Soon after this Grace entered the Sunday-school, in the work of which she was ever after thoroughly interested, having lessons well prepared when a pupil and giving the greatest diligence to impart instruction when a teacher.

She was very fond of music, whereby she brought much sunshine into the home. She was organist in her church and taught music to their neighbors' children.

One night some years ago at Dunaway Chapel, having the conviction of the need of God's saving grace and a resolve to live for Him, she went forward and united with the M. E. Church, South. She was afterward, in the summer of 1896, converted during a meeting held at the M. E. church, and immediately became an active worker in her church. She frequently led the cottage prayer meetings, which she attended regularly several miles from home. She entered Asbury College in 1899 and afterward became a teacher in the public schools for her county. On December 24, 1902, she was united in marriage to Rev. Geo. B. Jackson, of the Kentucky conference. They left immediately for their home at Somerset, Ky., but in a little more than five months, she was brought back to her father's house to die. She rejoiced in the perfect love of God and in the prospect of entering the pearly gates. Her great love and gratitude to her Lord found expression in the language of the 23rd Psalm, which she continued to repeat even after she became unable to recognize the loved ones around her.

To the husband and other loved ones what a consolation that we know where to find Grace! And if we live so as to meet her, there will be no more parting, no sorrow nor sighing, but we shall dwell together with God and the Lamb forever and ever.

The funeral was preached at the home of her father by the writer, assisted by Rev. V. B. Daughetee, from II. Cor. v., 1, in the presence of about 500 people, assembled as evidence of the esteem in which Sister Jackson was held.

Carried by loving hands and followed by all present, the remains were laid to rest in the beautiful family burying ground near the home, there to await the resurrection call.
